Texas Fugitive Wanted for Two Aggravated Assaults Captured by the Fulton County Sheriff's Office

ATLANTA, GA — A man wanted in Texas on two charges of Aggravated Assault with a Deadly Weapon (Family Violence) is now at the Fulton County Jail after investigators with the Fulton County Sheriff's Office intercepted him during a Greyhound bus connection in Atlanta.

The Fulton County Sheriff's Office Strategic Enforcement Unit arrested 42-year-old Nathan Cataldi after receiving information from McKinney, Texas Police Department that the fugitive was traveling through Atlanta on a Greyhound Bus en route to Mississippi.

Within minutes of receiving the intelligence, investigators coordinated an operational plan and deployed deputies to the Greyhound station, where Cataldi was taken into custody without incident before he could continue his journey.

"It should be beyond clear that there is no safe haven in Fulton County," said Sheriff Patrick "Pat" Labat. "Our investigators stand ready to partner with agencies across the nation to locate and apprehend fugitives before they have another opportunity to endanger innocent people. This arrest is another example of our incredible coordination and the professionalism that is within our ranks."
